

94 The Adventures &c.

to assist us ; but Hope without Reason is but a false appearance, and he that will pursue the paths of Vice, can never hope to get again into the road of Happiness till he has swallowed large draughts of the bitter waters of Repentance.

“ To be good is to be happy.”
There is, therefore, no other way to attain true Pleasure, but by a righteous life ; no way to Happiness, but by the means of Religion and Virtue.

THE END.